Some were good, some were really difficult, but all were really interesting and I could finish them. Some hidden prerequisites (autotools, JNI, C and Java languages). You need to be efficient in ALL these or else you'll be stuck on problems not directly related to Android during labs ...

I hope this training session to be useful quite soon. Not FE's fault.

What part(s) of the course did you like most?

The labs Labs. Building executables and libraries.

What part(s) of the course did you like least?

None :-)
Labs (at the end=> become hard to understand and realize in the time allowed)
A lab working "magically" on another SD card with another card, inspite these cards being dumped by another guy because they did not work with him. Me no like when things suddenly work and I don't know why.
