Yep, good doc.
Some of the practical labs were difficult to understand such us the UBI lab for example.
Improvement can be done by adding more context and clearer instructions

The section on UBI could have been more ordered and best practices highlighted.

A little too long

How difficult were the training labs?

Comments and suggestions

The first couple labs were too easy in my opinion, but the later ones were more interesting to me.

Difficult, because I was not familiar with Linux at all...

The difficulty was mainly to understand the lab instructions and context
