Overall feel of randomness in the contents. Some of them were just mere "tips and tricks" and the strategy/rationale behind them was unclear

The trainer was kind and willing to answer all our questions, but it was a bit chaotic. I think he didn't prepare the lectures/demos enough

As explained before I had the feeling of rushing during the training. Perhaps this training is very concentrated in just 8 hours and it would be good to leave some more margin to assimilate the explanations and to encourage active participation.

Still happy with Bootlin resources
